

Helicopter
Film
Services

FLIR / IRENCO LEO-400

This flexible camera system incorporates the 3-chip Sony DXC930 broadcast colour TV Camera with a 32x zoom lens and AGEMA Thermovision® 1000 FLIR camera.

Applications include night and day shooting of law enforcement, border patrol, search and rescue, reconnaissance, aerial survey and pipeline / powerline inspection.

Essential Information:

System Includes

-  FLIR Camera model LEO-400/1000
-  Irenco Stabilized Camera Platform
-  Irenco Anti-Vibration Interface
-  AS355 / A3350 Mount - UMB Nose &/or Side

Special features

-  8x continuously variable electronic zoom
-  Freeze image function with full analysis capability
-  Temporal averaging selections for noise reduction
-  User-set isotherm alarm levels for target detection
-  Colour display options

Weight

-  Gimbal w/cameras: 33kg
-  Total system w/ nose bracket: 52kg

Features:

-  2-axis gyro-stabilized gimbal – 20 microradians image stability
-  3-CCD broadcast colour SD Camera with 18x zoom lens
-  FLIR with Dual 20 & 5 fields of view

Helicopter Film Services have years of experience and are able to provide unbiased bespoke recommendations for each project to advise on when equipment such as the night vision capability, FLIR (forward looking infra-red) will give you the best results.

We ensure you get the equipment that will provide the best quality footage, operating in as safe and efficient manner as possible. We always endeavor to keep your costs as low as possible, without compromising on quality.

ADDRESS

Hangar M, Denham Aerodrome
Denham, Uxbridge, London, UB9 5DF

PHONE

+44 (0)1895 833365

WEB

www.helicopterfilm.tv